Wine $55 per bottle / $12 per glass

Sparkling –

Sant'Anna Prosecco ~ Trieste, Italy; Light, dry, citrus and tree fruit notes, with a slight fizz

White –

Psiles Korfes ~ Samos, Greece; Sweet white wine. Small berried muscats gives this wine a very powerful and balanced manner.

Thema White ~ Drama, Greece; Sauvignon Blanc, well balanced and richly flavoured in the mouth with pleasuring freshness. Clean and fruity after taste.

Petit Couvent ~ Bekaa Valley, Lebanon; Dry, very light body and medium acidity. Featuring Obeidi, the native Lebanese indigenous grape paired with Viognier, an easy to drink staple.

Rosé –

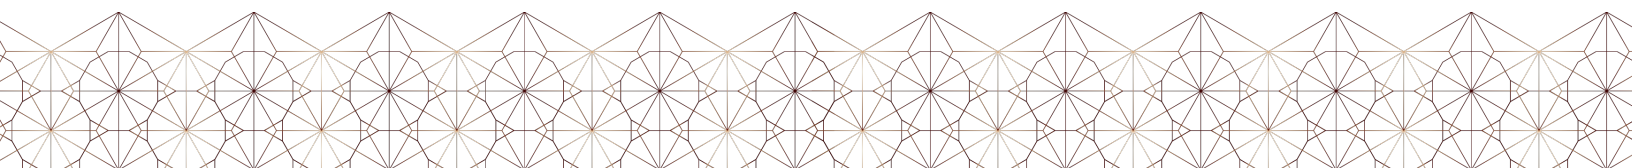

Petit Couvent Rosé ~ Bekaa, Lebanon; An early harvest rose that offers a well balanced and sophisticated wine with gumption. Round red fruit aromas with an appropriate level of acidity makes it slide down all too easily. Tfeifhe is a table grape by nature and its marriage with Tempranillo offers a deep red hue and bountiful flavour.

Red –

Nemea ~ Nemea, Greece; Light red colour with rich round body. Cherry in the nose with an under layer of pineapple and kiwi. Long finish with a taste of fruits.

Bekaa Red Cabernet Sauvignon, Syrah~ Bekaa Valley, Lebanon; Hailing from Lebanon's oldest winery, founded in 1868 in the Bekaa Valley. This medium bodied red features plum, red cherry, blackberries and a touch of spice with cinnamon. Luscious with light wood notes and minerals, this red wine is juicy yet smooth with easy drinking features.

Notes ~ Peloponnese, Greece; Aromas of red berries with hints of mocha and vanilla. Medium bodied with a long finish.
